Categories

AcroDance: The fusion of acrobatic content with dance elements, focusing on the blend of making acrobatics 50% of the routine and dance 50% of the routine. AcroDance routines show clearly-defined dance elements with the expectation of dance technique throughout transitions. As to be expected in all dance categories, performers should aim to fully utilize the entire stage as much as possible within their performance. Mats are not permitted.

Acrobatics: More traditional acrobatic routines that do not focus on deeply blending acrobatics with dance. The primary focus is acrobatics (approximately 80%) and dance elements are a more secondary component (20%) and, therefore, Acrobatics routines may not travel the stage as much as AcroDance routines do. Acrobatics routines may have a similar style to sport acro or may have a slightly more gymnastics feel. This is an appropriate category for Gymnastics-based displays. Thin strip mats are permitted.

Acro Open: An acrobatics-style routine that combines many acrobatic/dance/circus disciplines; therefore, classifying better under an open category. Tap shoes, singing, and floor mats are permitted.

Contortion: A showcase of flexibility elements composed into a routine. Mats are not permitted.

Tumbling Showcase: A routine comprised primarily of tumbling and stunting elements with choreographic features that are secondary to the overall performance. This is a suitable category for Gymnastics-based displays. Thin strip mats are permitted.

Adagio: A partner category specifically designed to showcase overhead lifts and partner balances. An adagio routine demonstrates strength, flexibility and balance but does not necessarily need to travel the entire use of the stage as would be expected in an AcroDance category. Mats are not permitted.

Hand Balancing: A routine composed primarily of hand balancing elements that may or may not be performed on rods or blocks. Mats are not permitted.

Aerial Hoop/Ring (freestanding): An aerial hoop routine in which the performer spends 50% or more of the routine suspended from a freestanding aerial prop. The prop does not have a base directly below the anchor point. The hoop may be two-point attachment or single-point with spinning permitted as preferred by the choreographer. A small mat is permitted under the prop.

Hoop Lollipop/Lyra Aerial Ring/or Weggsphere (freestanding): An Aerial hoop/ring-style routine in which the performer spends at least 50% of the routine on a Lollipop or Weggsphere style prop. A small mat is permitted under the prop. In this routine the base of the prop is often used choreographically.

Aerial Silks/Fabric/Tissue (freestanding): An aerial routine performed on silks/fabric/tissue in which the performer spends 50% or more of the routine on a freestanding prop rigged with silks/fabric/tissue. A small mat is permitted under the prop.

Aerial Trapeze (freestanding): An aerial trapeze routine in which the performer spends 50% or more of the routine on a stationary trapeze or a aerial cube. A small mat is permitted under the prop.

Aerial Cube (freestanding): An aerial cube routine in which the performer spends 50% or more of the routine on an aerial cube suspended from a freestanding rig. A small mat is permitted under the prop.

Aerial Open (freestanding): An open aerial routine in which the performer uses an aerial device not already listed in an alternative category such as straps, hammock or custom creations such as spiral, sail, heart, square or other. A small mat is permitted under the prop.

Object Manipulation & Juggling: An entertaining routine focussed around object manipulation or juggling infused with Acrobatic and variety elements. Tap shoes, singing or speaking is permitted. Mats are not permitted.

Open Circus: A performance that does not easily fall into any of the above alternative categories featuring content originating from circus-based disciplines or acrobatics including but not limited to German Wheel, Cyr, or other circus apparatus. Small mats are permitted under any free-standing props.

Rule of the Dynasty will become an Acrobatic Arts
Ambassador and will win a masterclass
for their studio.

Faculty

Vicki Fletcher

Brantford, Ontario, Canada

Vicki Fletcher was born and currently lives in Ontario, and has been dancing since the age of 2. She began teaching at the age of 17 and has been doing it ever since. Vicki brings 25 years of teaching experience in jazz, tap, acro, lyrical, stretch and conditioning and musical theatre.

Vicki graduated from Dance Masters of America's Teacher's Training School at Kent State University and the University of New York in Buffalo and is also certified through the Ontario's Gymnastics Federation. Vicki has adjudicated dance competitions and has taught workshops at many studios in Canada. She feels it is very important to stay current with your training so attends workshops and conventions whenever she can. She has won many awards for her creative and innovative choreography and her students have won numerous awards, scholarships and titles. Many have gone on to pursue their own careers in dance whether it be performing in companies or on cruise ships, studying dance in University and becoming teachers themselves.

Drew Burgess

Columbus, Ohio

An Ohio native, Drew made his industry debut on Live with Regis during Amazing Kids Week. Upon relocating to California, he trained at L.A.'s best studios including EDGE, Millennium, Fusion, and the PAC Annex. Drew is highly sought after as a performer, choreographer, guest teacher, dance supervisor and dance captain. Drew can be seen on teaching & adjudication panels for: Chicago National Association of Dance Masters, Dance Teachers Club of Boston, Leap! Competition, Dance Masters of America Regional Chapters, Dance Educators of America, & the Rhee Gold Company.

A former competitor himself, Drew's regional titles include Master, Junior, and Teen Mr. Dance of Ohio, as well as, Mr. Dance of the Pacific Coast. Nationally, Drew is a former Jr. Mr. Dance of America and Mr. Dance of America. Drew is certified by test to teach through DMA & DEA in ballet, tap, jazz and acrobatics and is an active member in both organizations. Drew is also proud to be Acrobatic Arts Certified (MI-M3) & part of their U.S. Division Staff of Course Conductors & Adjudicators.

Drew's corporate and live entertainment credits include performances with the Radio City Rockettes, Taylor Swift and The Baha Men.

Loren Dermody

Columbus, Ohio

A renowned and sought-after coach and choreographer, Loren started studying dance, acrobatics, and baton twirling at a very young age. Throughout her competitive career she competed nationally and internationally in dance and baton twirling as an individual and in groups. In addition to holding a Bachelor of Arts in Dance Studies, Loren is a member of many wonderful dance organizations.

Over the last 30 years, when she's not choreographing award-winning routines for hundreds of dancers and athletes in dance, baton and acrobatics, you can find her adjudicating competitions, upgrading her certifications, attending professional development events, workshops, and conferences that keep her on top of the most recent developments and current trends in the industry.

Loren has been with Acrobatic Arts since the beginning and she continues to share her creativity and years of experience towards the growth of new programs and the expansion of the syllabus. She is an Acrobatic Arts course conductor, examiner, head of research and development for the company as well as being the current host for the Acrobatic Arts Podcast.

Robin Szuch

Okotoks, Alberta

Founder of Spectacle Blue, Robin Szuch spent almost 20 years as a dancer. Armed with those of years dance training, and a degree in Fine Arts in Drama and Dance, Robin moved to Toronto to pursue her love of theatre and dance. While working as a dancer and actor and continuing her professional training, Robin found the element of artistry she was looking for to complete her artistic vision, Aerial. Taking the plunge with fellow artist Stacy Clark, High Strung aerial dance was born and the two spent the next 10 years training, performing, coaching and creating dance, circus and aerial dance works around the globe.

After 10 successful years on the road High Strung aerial dance officially retired and Robin opened a full time training and coaching studio, Spectacle Blue Studios. Having made the full time transition from choreographer/performer to choreographer/coach Robin had time to look at her world, the world of Aerial Dance, only to discover a gap in formal training methodologies for this exciting genre. And so began the diligent work to create a solid, safety conscious syllabus of training to help young dancers delve into the world of Aerial Dance.

Sarah Reis

Chilliwack, British Columbia

Sarah is a certified teacher in acrobatics through the Canadian Dance Teachers Association (CDTA) and is a level three coach in women's artistic gymnastics with the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP). With an interest in both art and sciences, Sarah studied contemporary dance at Simon Fraser University and holds a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology. A further degree in Education accumulated into a teaching license with the BC Ministry of Education in the specialty of Performing Arts and Physical Education.

Sarah taught dance in the school district for many years while completing her master's degree in Human Performance and Coaching Studies. Sarah is now involved in doctorate research in Sports Medicine with a research interest in AcroDance teaching methodology. Sarah recently presented research on spinal health in contortion work at the International Association of Dance Medicine and Science in Montreal. Sarah has spent the last decade presenting at various universities, dance conventions and conferences worldwide and can also be seen presenting live from Los Angeles with CLI Studios. With an interest in creative opportunities Sarah has been choreographing AcroDance lines and productions for more than twenty years. Module three certified, Sarah is an examiner and course conductor with Acrobatic Arts.

Erin Carnie

Maple Ridge, British Columbia

Erin started dance at age 5 and found her true passion in contortion and acrobatics at the age of 8. She has studied under the direction of Anne Lawton from Westcoast Contortion and Acrobatics and was trained by Otgo Waller, a world-renowned contortionist from Cirque du Soleil. She has also trained on aerial silks with Kristi Toguchi, a Las Vegas performer, as well as former Cirque Du Soleil performers; Ninon Parent and Peter Boulanger from the Underground Circus.

She was 13 years old when she created my own business "Bendy Bodies Acrobatics" which is where I started performing contortion & aerial arts professionally and teaching it by age 15.

"Whether you think you can or you can't you are probably right, that's my motto."
